

ILLUSTRATED

Evening Ledger

TUESDAY
March 14, 1916

TIMELY SIDELIGHTS ON THE DAY'S OUTPUT OF NEWS FROM A THOUSAND SOURCES

THE PHILLY HURLING SQUAD WARMING UP FOR SEASON OF 1916

A scene in Coffee Pot Park, St. Petersburg, Fla., where training activities are in progress. Left to right are Adams, Baumgartner, Oeschger, Tincup, McQuillan, Chalmers and Mayer.

SPEED QUEEN APPEARS AT BUSINESS SHOW

Miss Rose L. Fritz, for four years the fastest typewriter operator in the world, was one of the contestants in the speed contest at the 1st Regiment Armory yesterday.

By Evening Ledger Staff Photographer.
OFF HOURS WITH THE PHILLIES IN FLORIDA
Pitchers Mayer and McQuillan doing a little angling on the side at St. Petersburg. The squad is reported to have considerable luck, too, though the evidence is not revealed here.

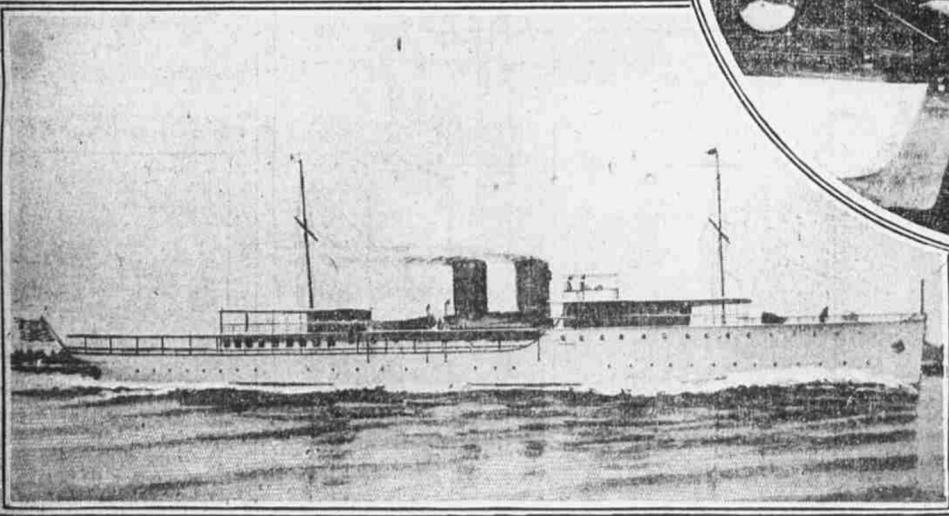

Photo by International Film Service.

WORLD'S BIGGEST MOTORBOAT DEVELOPS 9400 HORSEPOWER
John N. Willys, the motorcar maker, is the owner of this powerful craft, which is equipped with cabins for 10 guests, 10 bathrooms, piano, organ and wireless apparatus. It is 240 feet long and burns oil for fuel.

IN ITALIAN BENEFICIAL ASSOCIATION BALL

Basil Milano and wife won much favor as Uncle Sam and Miss Columbia at celebration attended by many prominent members of the local Italian colony.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

INTERNATIONAL COMMISSION STARTS FOR SOUTH AMERICA ABOARD U. S. CRUISER TENNESSEE
Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo (with cane) is the leader of the party which goes to attend a conference on trade relations with Latin America. On his left is Samuel Untermyer, the lawyer. A considerable squall was stirred up by the fact that the presence of the wives of the members broke the old navy rule that no women shall be carried aboard a United States warship.